LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 4:48; sun sets 6:12. High water 9:07 a. m. and 9:00 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this week showers, easterly winds, increasing.

RURAL JUDICATURE.—A few days ago two young men of this city, Robert Padgett and Clarence Brown, manufacturers of cigars, took some of their stock to a park or resort north-west of the city, for the purpose of turning an honest penny. After time had been on the ground a short time a colored man approached the couple and offered them a box of cigars. Later this individual (who was a constable) made his second appearance, this time, it is alleged, with a pistol in each hand, and put the Alexandrians under arrest. The constable ordered the two men out of the "crazy," and, according to their statement, seated himself in it, compelling the prisoners to walk to the house of a colored magistrate while he rode. Having arrived at this dispensary of justice, the magistrate seemed to think he had a grave case on his hands and took down a book. He read a little and subsequently startled the prisoners by informing them that the penalty for selling cigars of their own manufacture was $200. The two men protested, and asserted that they paid a tax as manufacturers and were allowed to sell their goods without additional license. The justice turned to his book again and still further alarmed the captives by informing them he had made a mistake in the first instance, and that their fine was $500. At this juncture the wife of the dispenser of justice made her appearance, and after she and her husband had had a head-to-head conference, one of the prisoners asked permission to look at the book from which the inspiration of the court was being derived, and in a few moments the magistrate had his attention directed to a statute which exonerated the accused. The justice, after some hesitation, said, "Well, the Commonwealth has no case, anyhow. I dismiss the prisoners."

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and mild. Three prisoners and two lodgers were at the station house. Justice Thompson this morning disposed of the following cases: Robert Arnold, charged with striking Samuel Madison on the head with a rock, was fined $5. John Penn, arrested by Officer Jones for being drunk and disorderly, forfeited his collateral. John Sims, arrested by Officer Jones for drunken and disorderly conduct in the street, was fined $5. James Clift, arrested by Officer Bettis, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $250. Edgar J. Waller, arrested by Officers Young and McCuen for disorderly conduct and resisting an officer, forfeited his collateral. William P. Ye, colored, arrested by Officers Arrington and Crump, charged with beating Nellie P. Ye, also colored, was dismissed, the charge having been withdrawn. Joseph Alexander, arrested by Special Officer Crump for trespassing on the property of the Virginia Midland Railway, and for disorderly conduct, was fined $250. John Brissay, arrested by Officer Ticer, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $1. John Nelson, colored, arrested by Officer Bettis for drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $250. William Lovell, arrested by Officers Grady and Arrington for using profane and vulgar language, was fined $2. A white man who had sworn out a warrant against a white woman for disorderly conduct, was made to pay the costs of the warrant for failure to appear.

EJECTED FROM A HOTEL.—A man calling himself J. H. Brodus, who had been entertained at the Braddock House for the last four months and who showed no ability to settle with Mr. Hancock, the host, was told Saturday to seek other quarters. The delinquent, who is said to be a sort of visionary, had been promising to pay his bills week after week, insisting in the meantime that he was a man of means and was awaiting drafts, remittances, &c. He finally negotiated for the purchase of the hotel agreeing to pay $30,000 for the property. Later he employed a photographer to go to the hotel and take pictures of the exterior and interior, and is said to have had views of every room in the house prepared. While all this was going on he was negotiating for the purchase of eighty or ninety acres of land at New Alexandria where he was to establish locomotive works. Upon being pressed for his hotel bill he told Mr. Hancock to wait until the first of September when he would have plenty of money. The first of the month came, but Mr. Brodus's remittances did not, and the ninth day being about to close the proprietor of the hotel told his guest to procure other quarters. This Brodus was loth to do, and Lieutenant Smith was called upon to oust him. He passed the night as a lodger at the station house. To-day he was still in the city. He says he has a draft on a Western bank for $300. The delinquent is about sixty years of age.

FALL OF A HOUSE.—At half past three o'clock this morning people residing on the square on Pitt street, between Prince and Duke, were startled by a sudden noise occasioned by the fall of many bricks and the crushing of wood work. An examination having been made it was found that the south end of the old turtle-back brick house opposite St. Paul's Church had fallen and carried away part of the north side of the frame house adjoining. The entire south wall with the chimney had, without the slightest premonition, collapsed, the debris being piled up between the two houses and scattered over the front pavement. The property at present belongs to Miss Grigg, of Fairfax county, and is probably the oldest structure in the city, having been erected during colonial days, and is said to have been confiscated during the revolutionary war as the property of a Tory. It has been out of repair for years, and at the time of its collapse was unoccupied. During the severe storm a week or two ago a large tree which had stood near the south end of this house was blown down. The roots doubtless ran under the wall, and the prostration of the tree may have loosened the foundation of the house, which accounts for its tumble last night. The walls of the old building being considered dangerous were this evening pulled down by the city authorities.

CAPT. SHEPHERD'S APPOINTMENTS.—Capt. Ham. Shepherd, the recently appointed U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue for this district, has made the following appointments: S. L. Monroe deputy in place of ex-Judge Shumate, of Fauquier, and the deputy's office will be removed from Calverton to this city. Wm. H. Brooks, of Leesburg, storekeeper of the Mahoneyville distillery in Fairfax county, near this city, which place is now filled by Mr. Chas. Dearborn. George Washington stamp deputy in this city, which place is now filled by Mr. J. T. Johnston. G. K. Pickett, of Fairfax, gauger in place of Mr. Jos. G. Lash, of this city.

It was generally understood that Mr. Donald McLean, of Fairfax, had the positive promise from Capt. Shepherd that he was to be appointed storekeeper at the distillery, and Mr. McLean's friends in this city and Fairfax were much disappointed to-day when they heard that Mr. Brooks had been appointed to that position.

REGATTA.—The annual Potomac river regatta took place at Washington on Saturday and was witnessed by at least six thousand people. The junior eight-oared shell, distance one mile and a-half straightaway, was won by the Columbia Athletic Club of Washington, time, 8:10; the senior four-oared shell, one mile and a-half, with a turn, between the Annapolis and Columbia Clubs, was won by the former, time, 9:52 1-5; the junior singles, one mile and a-half, with a turn, between Ingraham, Pennsylvania Barge Club, and Blair, P. O. Mac B. Club, Washington, was easily won by Ingraham; the junior four-oared shell, one mile and a-half, with a turn, between the Columbia Athletic and Potomac Clubs, of Washington, was won by the former by ten lengths, time, 10:08 1-5; the senior singles, one mile and a-half, with a turn, was won by Edwin Hedley, of the Passaic Boat Club, of Newark, N. J., time, 10:17 1-5; the senior four-oared race was won by the Neptune Boat Club, of Baltimore, time, 10:04 1-5.

FOR CHICAGO.—The following Alexandrians will leave here to-night on a special car for a week's sojourn at the World's Fair under the personal charge of Mr. John M. Barrett: Messrs. Frank Suter, John Herndon, Clarence Leadbeater, William Powell, T. M. Reese, Mrs. T. M. Reese, Mrs. Bieg, Misses Mary Suter, Fannie Suter, Virginia Corse, Bessie Corse, Anna Leadbeater, Minnie Henderson, Jane Henderson, Kate Reese, Fannie Reese, Rebecca Ramsay, Lucy Ramsay, Hallie Ramsay, Maggie Ashby, Nina Johns, Cora Moore, Mary Gilpin, Florence Haliwell, Eliza Greene and Sallie Greene. This party leaves at night in order to go over the beautiful part of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad by daylight. They will arrive at Chicago at 6 o'clock on Wednesday morning and put up at the Independence Hotel. Will leave Chicago the following Tuesday in two parties, one party returning via Natural Bridge and the other via Niagara Falls.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. Benoni Wheat, accompanied by Miss Catherine Critcher, Miss Maude and Mr. Harry Wheat, have gone to Chicago to attend the fair. Dr. Marye is seriously ill at his home on Duke street. Rev. C. E. Ball, rector of Grace Church, will be absent from the city on Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Fanny Dixon and nephew, Mr. Gordon Thomas, have returned from Goshen, where they have been spending the summer at the Alleghany Hotel. Mr. Robt. J. Thomas has returned from Louisville, Ky., where he has been on a visit to his mother. Miss Maggie Dean has returned from the White Sulphur Springs.

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR.—At sunset yesterday evening the Jewish people of Alexandria with a sprinkling of those of other denominations gathered in the synagogue on north Washington street for the purpose of participating in the services incidental to the New Year. The services were conducted by Rev. Isaac E. Marcuse, of the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati. Mr. Marcuse is no doubt a young man specially fitted for his calling in life, and his lecture was pronounced by all as interesting, logical and practical. There was not a word uttered that could not have been conscientiously adopted by people of all creeds. Mr. Marcuse will conduct the services during the ten days which shall follow, including those on the Day of Atonement.

RESISTED THE OFFICERS.—When the last local train from Washington arrived in this city at 12 o'clock Saturday night a man who was one of the passengers refused to disembark when he reached the Fayette street depot and said he desired to go farther down the road. He paid no attention to the trainmen, and they called upon Officers Young and McCuen to eject him. The passenger showed as much obstinacy when the officers appeared as he had toward the railroad officials and resisted them for all he was worth, until being tapped on the head he concluded to submit to arrest. He was taken to the station house and was released upon $5 collateral for his appearance this morning. He did not appear, however, and the "V" went into the city treasury.

PERPETUATING PENSIONS.—Captain William Weaver, of Lodge Landing, Westmoreland county, Va., a well-known river man, whose wife departed this life quite recently, laid aside his badge of mourning on Saturday last and was united in marriage to a young girl of seventeen summers. The captain, who is seventy years of age, came up on the steamer Arrowsmith last night to draw his quarterly pension of ninety dollars and is doubtless ambitious, in the course of time, of leaving a young widow to perpetuate the family name and draw her pension from the coffers of the government.

FINAL REHEARSAL.—The final rehearsal of the Alexandria division of the centennial chorus will take place at Peabody Hall to-night at 7:30 sharp. Every member is requested, urgently, to be present, promptly on time. Prof. Cloward signified to Mr. Gambrell his intention of being present, as will also Dr. F. T. Howe, chairman of the chorus committee. The announcement for the general rehearsal in Washington will be made officially. All the members of the chorus are expected to be present and to bring their books with them.

A DISMAL SUNDAY.—The weather yesterday was cloudy and rainy, which considerably interfered with out-door operations. Most people stayed indoors the greater part of the day, and there was a marked diminution in church attendance. Cars and steamboats did not reap their usual Sunday harvests, comparatively few patronizing either.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.—Mr. E. O. Swain, son of the late George Swain and brother of Messrs. Stephen and George Swain, died in Iowa City a few days ago. The deceased was born in Washington, but came here while young where he remained until some time in the "fifties," when he went West.

THE A. L. I.—The Alexandria Light Infantry have been called to meet to-morrow night at their armory to make arrangements for visiting Washington on the 18th to take part in the celebration of the centennial of the laying of the cornerstone of the Capitol building.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

To-day has been rainy, with a chilly north-east wind.

No business was transacted in the Corporation Court to-day.

The new roller shelves are being put in the office of the Clerk of the Corporation Court.

This being the Jewish New Year, the s'ores of all the Israelites in the city were closed to-day.

The four-masted schooner Independence from the Kennebec is discharging a part of her cargo of ice at Reed's wharf.

S. M. Jones has sold to W. C. Field a lot in the subdivision bounded by Montgomery, First, Alfred and Patrick streets.

The train on the W. & O. road which has heretofore left Leesburg at 7:35 a. m. daily for this city has been discontinued.

The public schools of the city opened to-day with a large attendance. St. John's Academy and some of the other private schools also opened to-day.

Mr. C. F. Neale, who sold the largest number of tickets for the excursion recently given by the Hydrulic Fire Company, has been presented with a handsome gold badge by that company.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington Saturday to Robert Gross and Minnie Walker, of Fairfax county, and Peter Mulligan, of Narragansett Pier, and Elda Gaynor, of Loudoun county.

A fight between two men on the 2:30 o'clock ferry boat from this city yesterday evening caused some excitement. The row was brought on by an insulting remark made by one of the men, who was promptly knocked down.

Telephones and call bells have been placed in the two fire engine houses and in the hook and ladder truck house, and in the residence of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, and hereafter the firemen on duty at these houses can be directly notified of the location of fires. The call bells have been so arranged that an alarm can be sounded without calling up the central office.

Mr. J. T. Stone receives daily from Norfolk fine supplies of oysters, clams and crabs. After this week the clam and crab season will be over, and he will have no more until next year.

Slaughter of Blankets.

We closed from one of the largest Blanket Manufacturers in this country over 500 pair of White Wool Blankets. This will seem to you a peculiar time to make an offering in this line, but we could not resist the purchase. The almighty purchasing power of ready cash is what the manufacturer sought for. We had it, and in exchange they gave us blankets for "Fifty Cents" on the dollar. We are going to make one "SCREAMING SLAUGHTER SALE" of them, and would advise everyone to prepare for the winter, for never again will there be such an offering in Blankets, even in dead winter. They will be divided into twelve lots, prices ranging to suit all.

Sales open MONDAY, at 8 a. m.
